LEADERSHIP EXPECTATIONS

COORDINATOR

TO EQUIP PEOPLE TO EXPERIENCE CHRIST'S FREEDOM IN THEIR EVERYDAY LIVES

We lead more effectively when we know what is expected of us. Clarifying expectations reduces stress, brings focus to action, and makes teams more productive. These expectations are laid out in four key areas: Relationships, roles, responsibilities, and results.

RELATIONSHIPS

There are certain relationships we want leaders to intentionally develop and thrive in. First and foremost we expect leaders to take care of themselves spiritually, physically, and emotionally. The relational health of our leaders impacts the health of the church. We expect leaders to develop healthy relationships with Christ, their family, the church, and their world. The chart below highlights indicators of healthy, thriving relationships.
